

Supply list for Acrylic Class with Melissa Gannon

Paints: (these are only suggested—You basically need red, yellow, blue and white) (the craft acrylic paints will work if you don't want to buy the more expensive acrylic paint. Look for a red, red, a blue, blue and a yellow, yellow.)

I use:

Quinacridone Magenta
Ultramarine Blue
Turquoise (Phthalo),
Hansa Yellow Medium
Transparent Yellow Iron Oxide
Transparent Pyrrole Orange
Titanium White
Pyrrole red
Quinacridone red
Quinacridone azo nickel gold
Teal
Any other colors that interest you.

Brushes:

1.5 inch wash brush (you can use a foam brush instead) This size brush is good to have for big canvases.
half inch flat brush
A small brush to sign your name
A middle sized round brush if desired
Rubber gloves if you want to paint with your fingers.

- Acrylic Glazing liquid (optional)
- Gel medium, and polymer medium (this can be used as a glue for collage or for color glazing, optional)
- Palette (you can use paper plates or palette paper)
- Paper or canvas (watercolor paper works for this as well)
- Water containers
- A piece of foamcore to use as a support for your paper or canvas
- A rag for wiping your brush
- A sponge for texture (natural sponges make more interesting texture)
- Pencil
- Eraser
